

UNITED STATES DISTRICT COURT

DISTRICT OF NEVADA

KAPRI CARUTLERSE,

Case No. 2:24-cv-01515-GMN-EJY

v.

Plaintiff,

ORDER

WARDEN, et al.,

Defendants.

Plaintiff Kapri Carutlerse brings this civil-rights action under 42 U.S.C. § 1983 to redress constitutional violations that she claims she suffered while incarcerated. (ECF No. 1-1.) On August 26, 2024, this Court ordered Plaintiff to file a fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis or pay the full $405 filing fee on or before October 25, 2024. (ECF No. 3.) The Court warned Plaintiff that the action could be dismissed if she failed to file a fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis with all three documents or pay the full $405 filing fee for a civil action by that deadline. (Id. at 2.) That deadline expired and Plaintiff did not file a fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis, pay the full $405 filing fee, or otherwise respond.

I. DISCUSSION

District courts have the inherent power to control their dockets and “[i]n the exercise of that power, they may impose sanctions including, where appropriate . . . dismissal” of a case. Thompson v. Hous. Auth. of City of Los Angeles, 782 F.2d 829, 831 (9th Cir. 1986). A court may dismiss an action based on a party’s failure to obey a court order or comply with local rules. See Carey v. King, 856 F.2d 1439, 1440-41 (9th Cir. 1988) (affirming dismissal for failure to comply with local rule requiring pro se plaintiffs to keep court apprised of address); Malone v. U.S. Postal Service, 833 F.2d 128, 130 (9th Cir. 1987) (dismissal for failure to comply with court order). In determining whether to

1 dismiss an action on one of these grounds, the Court must consider: (1) the public's
 2 interest in expeditious resolution of litigation; (2) the Court's need to manage its docket;
 3 (3) the risk of prejudice to the defendants; (4) the public policy favoring disposition of 4 cases on their merits; and (5) the availability of less drastic alternatives. See In re
 5 Phenylpropanolamine Prod. Liab. Litig., 460 F.3d 1217, 1226 (9th Cir. 2006) (quoting
 6 Malone v. U.S. Postal Serv., 833 F.2d 128, 130 (9th Cir. 1987)).

7 The first two factors, the public's interest in expeditiously resolving this litigation
 8 and the Court's interest in managing its docket, weigh in favor of dismissal of Plaintiff's
 9 claims. The third factor, risk of prejudice to defendants, also weighs in favor of dismissal
 10 because a presumption of injury arises from the occurrence of unreasonable delay in filing
 11 a pleading ordered by the court or prosecuting an action. See Anderson v. Air West, 542
 12 F.2d 522, 524 (9th Cir. 1976). The fourth factor—the public policy favoring disposition of 13 cases on their merits—is greatly outweighed by the factors favoring dismissal.

14 The fifth factor requires the Court to consider whether less drastic alternatives can 15 be used to correct the party's failure that brought about the Court's need to consider 16 dismissal. See Yourish v. Cal. Amplifier, 191 F.3d 983, 992 (9th Cir. 1999) (explaining 17 that considering less drastic alternatives before the party has disobeyed a court order
 18 does not satisfy this factor); accord Pagtalunan v. Galaza, 291 F.3d 639, 643 & n.4 (9th
 19 Cir. 2002) (explaining that “the persuasive force of” earlier Ninth Circuit cases that 20 “implicitly accepted pursuit of less drastic alternatives prior to disobedience of the court’s 21 order as satisfying this element[,]” i.e., like the “initial granting of leave to amend coupled 22 with the warning of dismissal for failure to comply[,]” have been “eroded” by Yourish).
 23 Courts “need not exhaust every sanction short of dismissal before finally dismissing a 24 case, but must explore possible and meaningful alternatives.” Henderson v. Duncan, 779
 25 F.2d 1421, 1424 (9th Cir. 1986). Because this action cannot realistically proceed until 26 and unless Plaintiff either files a fully complete application to proceed in forma pauperis
 27 or pays the $405 filing fee for a civil action, the only alternative is to enter a second order
 28 setting another deadline. But the reality of repeating an ignored order is that it often only

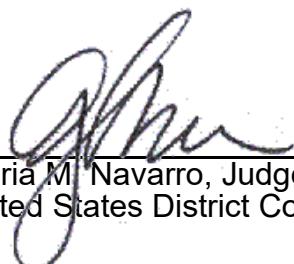

1 delays the inevitable and squanders the Court's finite resources. The circumstances here
2 do not indicate that this case will be an exception: there is no hint that Plaintiff needs
3 additional time or evidence that she did not receive the Court's order. Setting another
4 deadline is not a meaningful alternative given these circumstances. So the fifth factor
5 favors dismissal.

6 II. CONCLUSION

7 Having thoroughly considered these dismissal factors, the Court finds that they 8 weigh in favor of dismissal. It is therefore ordered that this action is dismissed without 9 prejudice based on Plaintiff's failure to file a fully complete application to proceed in forma
10 pauperis or pay the full $405 filing fee in compliance with this Court's August 26, 2024,
11 order. The Clerk of Court is directed to enter judgment accordingly and close this case.
12 No other documents may be filed in this now-closed case. If Plaintiff wishes to pursue 13 her claims, she must file a complaint in a new case.
